Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Neil Thacker (illustrator). 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A dark age hangs over Galactic civilization. Eleven centuries from the present day the Transhuman Overlords engage in a war with the organic colonies. Mankind s stellar civilizations falter for a millennium. But the worst has only begun. Psychic and parasitic, entities of dark matter begin to reveal themselves-soul eating, macabre, and legion. Galvanized by the Transhuman s horrific war, It has taken them the long centuries to cross the intergalactic void in number since the holocausts. They are hungry. A grim young smuggler must unravel the secrets the Transhumans are keeping from the galaxy. In a stolen battle frigate he assembles a crew. Hunted by the syndicate and bounty hunters, they barely hang on to their trade guild membership. Transhuman Overlords, Fleet Generals, renegade war dogs; like flotsam in a tide they are all pulled toward a mysterious nebula to unlock a series of mysteries going back 63 million years when the Predecessor civilization mysteriously dissapeared. Outside the hull, decades later, Vince watched those same Pleiades filling his vision field now from horizon to horizon. They were in King Victors realms now, most certainly. The heavy guildsman staring at him now was Elias Tristan. He still held his inscrutable smile, more broadly at the moment. Mercenary rates? Very good now, certainly. But whose flag would you fly under? A test? Choose quickly, choose well. King Victors. Vince offered. Ahh, yes. The Royal police, In the hologram he rose from the big golden chair and moved about what appeared to be a library of sorts. And before I recommend you to the good king, how do I know Cyborgian Central Air Command won t come...
