Luce took the bat and stood by the home plate. To-day the coach did not intend to strike at any of the balls, but he and the two members of the Athletic Committee would judge, and award marks to the candidates. Oh, we dont want the dub! Trot out Rip! came a roaring chorus. Coach Luce, however, from this time on, paid no heed to the shouts or demands of spectators. The candidate for box honors now displayed all he knew about pitching, though some nervousness doubtless marred his performance. Now, run out Rip! came the insistent chorus again, after this candidate had shown his curves and had gone back. But it was another member of the junior class who came to the box for the next trial. Dead ball! Throw wild and cut it short! came the advice from the seats. Then a sophomore was tried out. But the crowd was becoming highly impatient. We want Rip! We demand Rip. Give us Rip or give us chloroform! came the insistent clamor. Well come another day to see the dead ones, if you insist. Coach Luce looked over at Fred, and nodded. The tumultuous cheering lasted two full minutes, for Gridley was always as strong on fans as it wanted to be on players. Fred Ripley was flushed but proud. He tried to hold himself jauntily, with an air of indifference, as he stood with the ball clasped in both hands, awaiting the signal. Ripley felt that he could afford to be satisfied with himself. The advance consciousness of victory thrilled him. He had worked rather hard with Everett;...
