Excerpt: . . . among the colored homes and 545 colored homes were inspected. Thus the total number of houses inspected was 3113. The housing information was collected on aspecial form card provided for this purpose. The housing conditions that prevail in the city are unusually good except in the Midland Valley Addition and in those sections occupied by the colored inhabitants. Tenement houses are practically absent entirely. Most of the homes, including those in the poorer sections, are single family, detached, wooden dwellings, one story in height. The best housing conditions are found in ward one, and the poorest in ward four. A large part of the colored population lives in ward 4. Ward two contains the Midland Valley section, and as a result, poor housing conditions are also found to exist in this ward. The condition of the white homes is usually good. The condition of...
