You know how fully I have trusted your judgment all through this very trying Mission, both in accepting the office, and resigning it when you thought the right time had come for you to do so. I believe that you were sent there to do a particular thing at that particular time, which few but you would have attempted, and which has stimulated and directed Church work in that country of bananas in a way which will very soon be plainly seen and last for many a long day. I hope the book will be widely read, and gain increased interest and support for the work, which I know you will hold dear, and help in every way you can, as long as you live.
